With champagne flowing from the moment you walked in, it was immediately obvious that this was an evening of celebrations. Thanks must go to the generous sponsors whose impressive prizes were awarded to all those lucky enough to be winners. Julius Baer took their role one step further, creating a short video of the highs and lows in life for professional polo players. Having flown in from Australia that morning, Hamish McLaughlan played host brilliantly, and with performances from The English Gents and Bath Boy, both acrobatic acts currently performing at La Clique in Paris, and of course an appearance from the unforgettable Rory Bremner – Audi, this is an evening that will be remembered for some time to come.
